

Dusty Bluebells

- One person is outside and everyone else forms a circle with their hands joined and up forming arches.
- Everyone sings the rhyme.
- The person on the outside goes in and out around the circle, until the song ends. Then they stand behind the person where they have ended up.
- Both of these children form a chain and go in and out as the song begins.
- The game continues until there is no one left to make the circle.

*In and out the dusty
bluebells,
In and out the dusty
bluebells,
In and out the dusty
bluebells,
Who will be my master?
Tippy-tappy tippy-tappy
On my shoulder.....
Tippy-tappy tippy-tappy
On my shoulder.....
Tippy-tappy tippy-tappy
On my shoulder.....
You will be my master.*
