

Oranges and Lemons

- Two people form an arch.
- Both children decide secretly who will be the orange team and who will be the lemon team.
- Everyone else forms a line and walks under the arch and around, singing the rhyme.
- The person who gets caught whispers, to the children forming the arch, either orange or lemon.
- The caught person then goes behind and holds onto the person who leads the team with the name chosen.
- The game continues.

*Oranges and lemons,
Say the bells of St. Clement's.*

*You owe me five farthings,
Say the bells of St. Martin's.*

*When will you pay me?
Say the bells of Old Bailey.*

*When I grow rich,
Say the bells of Shoreditch.*

*When will that be?
Say the bells of Stepney.*

*I do not know,
Says the great bell of Bow.*

*Here comes a candle to light you to bed,
And here comes a chopper to chop off your head!*
